LINCOLNSHIRE WILDLIFE TRUST - INSTAGRAM TAKEOVER

Lincoln Hedgehog Friendly Campus team lead Alex Foxley-Johnson will be taking over the Lincolnshire Wildlife Trust's Instagram stories in honour of #hedgehogweek! She'll be sharing information on what makes our uni "hogfriendly", how you can support wildlife at home and more.

TUESDAY 3RD MAY - 10:00 - 15:00

THE BIG HOGFRIENDLY LINCOLN EXHIBITION

Visit our Hedgehog Friendly Campus Lincoln exhibition in the University Library until the end of May. Read all about our Hogfriendly campaign at the University of Lincoln, check out hedgehog prints from mammal surveys run on campus and view passages on our favourite prickly pals in vintage books!

THROUGHOUT MAY

ZOOLOGY SOCIETY - WILDLIFE ON CAMPUS TALK & LITTERPICK

We'll be taking the Zoology Society out on campus to talk about the wildlife that lives here and what we're doing to support biodiversity on site, followed by a litter pick utilising the C.L.E.A.N Hub.

THURSDAY 5TH MAY 15:00 - 16:30

And coming up...

TWILIGHT WILDLIFE TOURS

Keep an eye on our social media for information on upcoming twilight wildlife tours in the city. We'll be going out in different locations over the summer, including Tritton Road, Hartsholme Park, and the Foss Dyke. Register your interest by emailing environment@lincoln.ac.uk
